

Publishers credit -

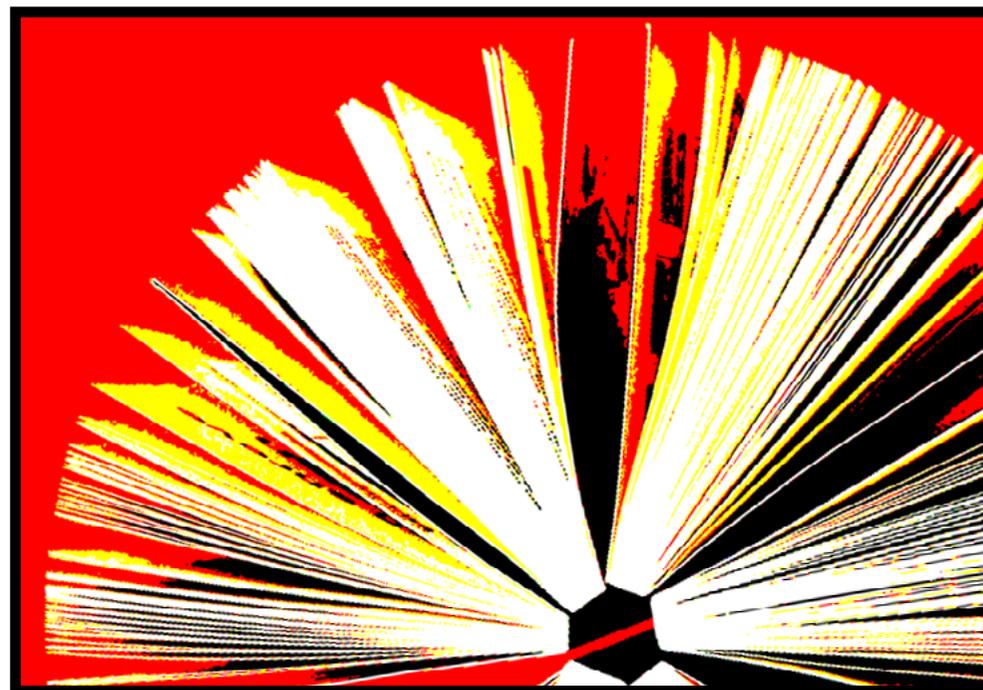

Picador
Fig Tree
Harper Collins Publishers Ltd
Vintage
Swordfish
Headline Review
Atlantic Books
Century

DEBUT NOVELS 2011

10 selected titles

libraries NI
www.librariesni.org.uk

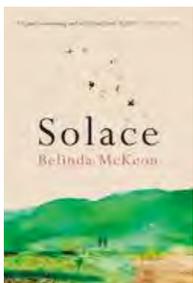

These books can be requested at any library or online at www.librariesni.org.uk

Landfall
Helen Gordon

London Art Critic leaves her London home and moves back to her parents in suburbia. But all is not what it seems and she becomes increasingly isolated and disengaged from real life.

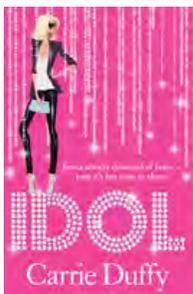

Solace
Belinda McKeon

A novel about love, loss, grief and regeneration. The struggles between father and son, between the country and city, between family and the individual.

Ours Are the Streets
Sunjeev Sahota

Story of a young British Muslim man who becomes radicalised during a visit to Pakistan and decides to die for his cause.

Idol
Carrie Duffy

A new voice in young women's fiction, Ms Duffy sets her novel in the raunchy love lives of the rich and famous.

Things We didn't See Coming
Steven Amsterdam

A story set in an imaginary future with a hero, a latterday cowboy quietly going about his business in a world beset by one catastrophe after another.

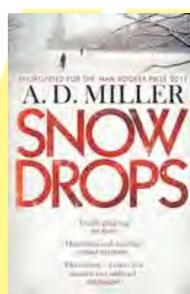

Spartan
Matthew Dunn

Action packed, tense spy thriller, with our hero thwarting a major threat against the West.

Ready Player One
Ernest Cline

It's the year 2044 and the world is an ugly place, part quest novel, part love story and part virtual space opera. A world at stake. Are you ready?

Snowdrops
A.D. Miller

Set against the background of modern Russia, corruption, intrigue, murder and scams. Shortlisted for 2011 Man Booker Prize

13 Rue Therese
Elena Maoui Shapiro

Story about a Parisian women's life told through the voice of a young American academic working at a university in Paris.

Everything and Nothing
Araminta Hall

A menacing and insightful novel, into the minds of one modern family trying to achieve the three goals of career, marriage and parenthood. Agatha, the new nanny comes into their lives, but she is not as perfect as she seems.