Selling on eBay

eBay is an online shopping site that is best known for its auctions however increasingly businesses are using eBay to sell directly to the customer. As a result, it is a mix of novice sellers and professional businesses. Some items allow you to bid on them whilst others have a set price.

Anyone can sell on eBay. There is a charge for selling on eBay. This may be a fixed fee or a percentage of the overall amount paid for an item depending on what offers are available, what you are selling and whether you have a personal or business account.

You can use eBay on a laptop but it is easier to download the app to your smart phone or a portable device. This will enable you to immediately upload photos of items for sale.

To sell on eBay

Decide if you want a business or personal account. For most people this will be a personal account. You can upgrade from a personal to a business account later if you want. However, you cannot change from a business account to a personal account.

To Register

- Enter your name and email address.
- Choose a password.
- Select Register. (Once you have registered you will have to verify your account by replying to an email.)
