

Accessing Your Church Online

Most churches these days provide some sort of online access, some even stream Sunday Services. If you google the name and location of your particular church you should be able to find their webpage or social media presence. Below are listed the web addresses of some of the main denominations in Northern Ireland.

Church Of Ireland

www.ireland.anglican.org

This website has a “Find a Church Tab and a searchable directory of clergy.

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

Catholic Church in Ireland

www.catholicireland.net

This website has a lot of content that you can browse from home including a webcam link to various services.

Presbyterian Church

www.presbyterianireland.org

A different layout from the previous two websites but again it contains a link to a Sunday Service

Baptist Church

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

www.baptistsinireland.org

Prayer

We believe that God is working out His purposes in and through the Association of Baptist Churches in Ireland but it is not through our might or power or clever ideas but by His Spirit.

This website contains a prayer diary that you can download and use every day. You can use the tabs to find a particular congregation.

Free Presbyterian Church of Ulster

www.freepresbyterian.org

This website has a link to Let the Bible Speak Broadcasting

Elim Church

www.Elimchurchinireland.com

This church advertises that it has content on all the main social media platforms

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

Stay connected via Social Media...

...or contact us at the Office

You can also go to the download section and download various sermons.

Islam

www.belfastislamiccentre.org.uk

Contains information under various tabs at the top of the screen as well as direction to their facebook page.

In fact most denominations and even individual churches maintain a social media presence now. If you are on www.facebook.com or www.twitter.com you can “like” their page. You can add comments or ask for help or simply read the information available on those pages.

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

Non-Subscribing Presbyterian church

www.nspresbyterian.org

The screenshot shows the website's home page with two main sections. On the left, the 'Social Media Feed' section features a video player with a play button and a thumbnail for the 'Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland' with 397 likes. On the right, the 'Reflections' section includes a sub-header 'Thoughts from some of our ministers and lay persons to help you through these difficult times of COVID-19 (Coronavirus)', a 'Facebook Pages' list with links to various churches, an 'Other' section with two more links, and a 'Youtube' section with a link to 'Sunday Services'. A small upward-pointing arrow icon is visible in the bottom right corner of the page.

You can find a good mix of online material by following the Social Media Feed or the Reflections links on the home page

Reformed Presbyterian Church

www.rpc.org

The screenshot shows a blog post titled 'FAMILY WORSHIP' dated 'March 20, 2020'. Below the title is a navigation path: 'March 20, 2020 / Leave a comment / Web Admin / Family Worship, Worship'. The main image shows a group of five people (three women and two men) looking down at a white sign that reads 'Let's Worship God' in large, bold, black letters.

If you click on the Family Worship link and then "Lets worship God" you can access some sermons online.

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available

Judaism

www.jewishgen.org

By clicking on the Ireland tab you can find links to the Jewish synagogues in Londonderry, Belfast and Lurgan.

www.irishmethodist.org

The Methodist church in Ireland has a comprehensive website which gives a full explanation of how Methodists are organised and a Find a Church link if you are seeking a local presence in your area. There are links to their twitter presence at the further down the home page.

Libraries NI is not endorsing or promoting any product, service or company mentioned in this document and other products are available